

Vera Caldwell Memorial Bursary

A $500 bursary will be awarded annually to a deserving International student studying at NSAC based on financial need. The bursary is in memory of Vera Caldwell who was a teacher and life-long learner who actively supported education for students from developing nations. Students who are paying international student fees in all programs of study at NSAC are eligible. Preference will be given to students studying full time in undergraduate or diploma programs. Applications must be submitted to the NSAC Awards Office no later than October 5.
